

Direct Deposit of Your Tax Refund is Quicker, Easier, Safer

IRS DIRECT

A direct deposit service from the IRS and your credit union

IRS DIRECT—Safe, Easy, Fast

Divide your refund three ways!

Working with your credit union, the IRS will electronically transmit your 2007 tax refund using direct deposit. Millions of taxpayers already take advantage of this service because it is:

- ✓ Safe—checks can't get lost or stolen
- ✓ Easy—no special trips to the credit union
- ✓ Fast—refunds arrive up to 3 weeks earlier.

SPLIT DEPOSITS OFFER MORE OPTIONS

You can also select up to three financial accounts for direct deposit of your tax refund. You can choose among IRA accounts, checking and savings as well as Health Savings Accounts, Coverdell education accounts or Archer medical savings accounts. You decide which combination is best for you. (Learn more at www.irs.gov)

HOW TO ARRANGE DIRECT DEPOSIT:

1. Use new IRS Form 8888 to split your refund.
2. Use the appropriate line under "Refund" on Form 1040 to deposit into a single account
3. Talk to your credit union about your best options!
